Dear Vassar Class of 1972,

I want to extend to you my warmest invitation to join us on a special visit to Lisbon, a hidden jewel of a city whose remarkable 21st-century rebirth has made it one of Europe’s most vibrant, yet unspoiled, capitals.

Portugal, standing between Spain and the vast Atlantic, has a long and proud history of fierce independence and intrepid seafaring. Its traditional agricultural and fishing communities continue unchanged beside its bustling and cosmopolitan cities. Mountainous landscapes, untouched by time and modernization, stand in curious juxtaposition to the jet-setting coastal resorts. Everywhere you look, there is evidence of the country’s deep connection to the sea—from the monuments that celebrate Portugal’s unique contributions to the development of navigation to its rich culinary traditions.

Lisbon, the capital, is a city with a vitality, variety and pulse like none other—from the chic shops of Chiada to its ancient Moorish Quarter, the Alfama, to the planned elegance of the Baixa district. A morning sightseeing tour with a local guide will introduce the various districts of the city, their classic historical charm intact. What were once forlorn spaces have metamorphosed into lively neighborhoods, filled with imaginative shops and restaurants, where we will enjoy the haunting soulfulness of “Fado,” the uniquely powerful music of Lisbon’s urban and maritime folk.

We’ll take an excursion up the coast to Cascais and Estoril, where the ruling royal family built their palaces amid lush breezy slopes with marvelous views of the sea, a verdant landscape Lord Byron described as a “glorious Eden.”

Next October, as the sun warms this Iberian corner, join fellow classmates for an unforgettable sojourn into the very heart and soul of ancient Portugal.

Sincerely,

Lisa Paravisini-Gebert
Professor of Hispanic Studies on the Sarah Tod Fitz Randolph Distinguished Professor Chair
